Checklist for Part-Time Students

(New Immigrants and Other Students Who Do Not Require a Form I-20 from ASC English):

If you are a new immigrant, US Permanent Resident, Green Card holder, or otherwise do not require a Form I-20 from ASC English, you may enroll in part-time courses at our institution by submitting the following documents and fees in-person:

- A completed application form including all required signatures (the application form can be downloaded from our website www.ascenglish.com)
- A non-refundable application fee of US$120
- A non-refundable enrollment deposit of US$250
- A copy of your ID (such as passport, green card or driver license)

Tuition balances must be paid prior to the start of courses.

Note About Tourist Visas:

Students whose primary intent in visiting the United States is to pursue a course of study should obtain an F-1 visa to enter the country. It is explicitly prohibited to enter the United States in B-1 or B-2 status for the express purpose of taking English, test preparation, or college preparatory courses. Students who are planning a short-term course of study in the United States should apply as an initial student and obtain the appropriate F-1 visa from a US Embassy or Consulate abroad.

B-1 or B-2 visa holders who have already entered the United States for purposes that are permissible by law, and who wish to enrich their experience in the country may take part-time, recreational English courses that are incidental to their stay. B-1 and B-2 visa holders may not enroll in iBT TOEFL Prep courses.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the ASC English staff:
